Former Student Athlete Association

Continuing the Academic and Athletic Legacy of

Pueblo Junior College
Southern Colorado State
College
University of Southern Colorado

What is the FSAA:

Mission

The Colorado State University – Pueblo Former Student-Athlete Association (FSAA) is committed to promoting an environment of education, personal growth, and competition for CSU-Pueblo Athletics. FSAA members, through their dedication and membership, support the continued growth of the CSU-Pueblo Athletic Department and their student-athletes.

Vision

The vision of the Colorado State University – Pueblo Former Athlete Association is to create a support system to provide current and future CSU-Pueblo student-athletes the same opportunity of continuing their athletic endeavors and obtaining a college education that was afforded to the members of the CSU-Pueblo FAA.

Goal

The goal of the Former Student-Athlete Association is to form a mutually beneficial relationship with former student athletes from Pueblo Junior College, Southern Colorado State College, University of Southern Colorado and CSU-Pueblo and the ThunderWolves current coaching staff and student-athletes, as well as increasing the enhancement fund for each sport, as well as the CSU-Pueblo Student-Athlete Scholarship Fund.
